The Month of February is the perfect time of year to really focus on making sure that your family knows you love them.

What do you do on a regular basis to express your love? What special things do you do to show your love? Do you know how your family feels loved the best?

Take the opportunity that February provides and show your family love with the 14 Days of Love challenge. It's a great way to show how small things make a big difference.

These should be simple things that you can do for each member of the family on a daily basis.
